

St Mary's Pro Cathedral New Plymouth and the Taranaki Youth Orchestra present

Organ Fireworks

Saturday 18 July 2009, 7:30 pm

St. Mary's Pro Cathedral,
Vivian Street, New Plymouth

Christopher Herrick (UK) with the Taranaki Youth Orchestra

World-renowned concert organist Christopher Herrick performs Guilman's exciting Symphony in D minor & March from the 'Occasional Oratorio' by Handel, for organ and orchestra with the Taranaki Youth Orchestra conducted by Harry Brown.

The second half presents solo organ works by J.S. Bach, Herbert Howells, Christian Heinrich Rinck, George Shearing and Marcel Lanquetuit.

"He is a virtuoso, no question"

– New York Times

"Performances which sometimes amaze, often astound, but never fail to stimulate"

– Gramophone

Admission by programme at the door
$20.00 & $15.00 concession.

Orchestra family members $10.00

This concert is generously supported by the George Mason Trust with proceeds given to the organ fund.

For further information contact Michael Cox - Organist & Director of Music, St. Mary's Pro Cathedral on (06) 758-3111.