Toccatà

Sunday 1 June 2:00 pm
Auckland Cathedral of the Holy Trinity

Hayko Siemens - Concert Organist

A "Toccatà" is a display of the organist's skill and the organ's power to thrill.

This programme from the European organ tradition includes music by Buxtehude, Bach, Reger, Schumann and Dubois; and celebrates both Hugo Distler and Messiaen in their centennial year.

Hayko Siemens performs no fewer than four Toccatas on the striking pipe organ in Auckland Cathedral of the Holy Trinity. Prepare to be well and truly thrilled!

Adult $20

Students, Senior Citizens $10

Door sales available. Children under 18 years old are free if accompanied by a paying adult.

Hayko Siemens

As Organist, Choral and Orchestral Director, German-based musician Hayko Siemens enjoys a coveted reputation throughout Europe.

He has regularly undertaken organ concerts throughout the world. He was the first ever German organist to be invited as “principal artist” to the Melbourne International Festival for Organ and Harpsichord, and has visited New Zealand on two previous occasions. He has made numerous organ recordings including the complete works of César Franck. In 1998 he moved to Munich to assume the prestigious position of Music Director and conductor of the Müncher MottettenChor as well as Musical Director of St Matthäus, the principal Lutheran church in the city.

Age of Discovery

The “Age of Discovery” is an exciting entity established in Auckland in order to champion performances of Early Music on period instruments. The unique 18th century historic organ in Ponsonby Baptist Church provides a focus for this activity, and the church has become a centre for Early Music activity in the city.

Auckland Organists' Association Inc.

The Auckland Organists' Association promotes and fosters an interest in Organs, Organ music and associated matters throughout the Greater Auckland region.

During Queen's Birthday weekend 2008 the AOA will host the national congress of ORGANZ - The New Zealand Association of Organists.
